

Castle Howard & Nunnington Hall

22.7 miles
(36.5km) all on road

Rising and falling through parklands, woodlands and picturesque villages, this is a true Howardian Hills ride with several marvellous views such as from the tiny turf maze near Dalby. There are tempting tearoom stops at Nunnington Hall manor house (National Trust), two cafés in Hovingham and in Terrington at the Yorkshire Lavender Farm and in Terrington at the Village Stores Tearoom. Free parking at majestic Castle Howard (main house and the Arboretum visitor centre opposite).

Grade: Hard
Refreshments: Cafes and farm shop at Castle Howard; cafe at Arboretum; shop in Slingsby; tearoom at Nunnington Hall; bakery, tearoom and café in Hovingham; tearoom at Yorkshire Lavender; cafe and shop in Terrington; pubs in Nunnington, Slingsby and Hovingham
Toilets: At Castle Howard and Terrington Village Hall (near entrance)

Link from Malton
 It's 5.8 miles (9.3km) from Malton Market Place to Castle Howard following this undulating back-road route into the Howardian Hills AONB.