

History and Habitats 2 walking from Terrington

6.5 miles (10.5km)
or 4.5 miles (7.3km)
easy/moderate circular walk

Terrington, an attractive village of stone houses set amongst the undulating countryside of the Howardian Hills, is a perfect starting point for your walk. This is a splendid route at any time of year – the wooded banks change character with the seasons from bright springtime greens to autumn hues. The walk offers both wide-ranging views and secluded woodland paths.

START: Terrington Village Hall. Leave via Church Lane, passing the Church of All Saints.

2 Follow the wall around the sports field. Exit field through a gap in the fence, turn R then L around the arable field edge.

4 Climb to meet a track and turn L onto it. At the brow of the hill turn sharply R onto stone bridgeway for a quarter mile.

5 LONGER ROUTE: Turn L onto the track to 'Fryton Moor'. Drop downhill passing Low and High Baxtonhowe then climb through Fryton Wood.
5 SHORTER ROUTE: continue SA and rejoin route at point 9.

3 Turn L at the sign and continue for half a mile. Cross a stream and two stiles to join field edge path.

11 The path widens to become 'Broats Lane' which meets with the road. After half a mile you re-enter Terrington.

6 At the top of the hill turn R signed 'Centenary Way'.

7 After half a mile turn R onto the bridgeway to 'Hall Moor'.

8 SA at the foot of the bank. On entering Thurtle Wood follow the track through trees until a bridgeway sign turns you R.

9 Turn L onto stone track. After 250 metres turn R, downhill to the road. R along road then quickly L through a bridgeway. Follow the woodland edge then through a gate in the fence.

10 At the copse turn R then go through a kissing gate. On entering open fields continue along the field edge.
